

Brannfords office is just a couple of miles down the road from a veritable treasure trove of wonderful objects for adorning a garden. Lassco now has a country seat at the Three Pigeons, an old coaching inn in Milton Common, Oxfordshire. It's well worth a visit if you want to visit an Aladdin's cave of rescued (and reproduction) objects for the house as well as the garden. You'll find statues, fountains, ironwork, columns, friezes, clocktowers, entranceways, rose arches, old signage and much more. Whether you buy or not, it's well worth a visit for a good look round and a cup of coffee.

For details, please see Links on the Brannfords website.